

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Valerie Wade

Summer Choices: A Group Exhibition

June 8 – August 31, 2019

Image: Leonardo Drew, CPP9, 2015.

Crown Point Press announces its annual group exhibition Summer Choices, which features a varied selection of prints to represent the summer season. Since its founding in 1962, Crown Point Press has worked with over a hundred artists who have created etchings that embody a range of themes from abstraction to representation. The prints brought together in this exhibition enhance one another's individuality and connection.

This diverse collection of prints offers a glimpse of the variety of talented artists who have worked in Crown Point's studio. Brooklyn-based painter Patricia Treib expressed feeling through her selection of vibrant blues and pinks in the Pendulum. "Color is one of the most important elements," she explained. "I bring it in from a separate direction, and it is at times shocking, and other times more subtle." John Chiara, a local photographer, created dreamy portraits of cityscapes and nature using photogravure. In Quintara at 14th, he emphasized the importance of natural light achieved in careful observation of his surroundings. Using aquatint and hard ground etching, sculptor Leonardo Drew created lively abstract prints during his time in the studio. He experimented with raw egg whites that dried and cracked over the rosin ground in unpredictable designs. Although mostly monochromatic, his work has a powerful energy pulsing through the intricate surface details.

Crown Point's Summer Choices exhibition includes work by Tomma Abts, Darren Almond, Mamma Andersson, Anne Appleby, Robert Bechtle, Brad Brown, John Chiara, Leonardo Drew, Marcel Dzama, Al Held, Joan Jonas, Tom Marioni, Chris Ofili, Ed Ruscha, Wayne Thiebaud, Patricia Treib, and William T. Wiley.

Summer Choices: A Group Exhibition is on view in the Crown Point Gallery at 20 Hawthorne Street, San Francisco, June 8 – August 31, 2019. The gallery hours are Monday 10-5 and Tuesday through Saturday 10-6.